

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE VIRGIN ISLANDS
DIVISION OF ST. THOMAS AND ST. JOHN

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,)
)
Plaintiff,)
)
v.)	Case No. 3:19-cr-0068
)
LOUIE ISON MANGAMPAT,)
)
Defendant.)
)

ORDER

BEFORE THE COURT is the trial in this matter, currently scheduled for January 25, 2021. For the reasons stated herein, the time to try this case is extended up to and including May 10, 2021.

On March 17, 2020, the Chief Judge of the District Court of the Virgin Islands entered a general order responding to the COVID-19 pandemic. The Chief Judge noted that the pandemic had been declared a national emergency and a public health emergency by the President of the United States. The Chief Judge also noted that the Governor of the Virgin Islands had declared a state of emergency. The Chief Judge found it necessary to “take reasonable and prudent actions” “in order to further public health and safety, and the health and safety of Court personnel, counsel, litigants, other case participants, jurors, persons with other business at the courthouse, and the general public.” Mar. 17, 2020, Order Concerning Operations of the District Court of the Virgin Islands During the COVID-19 Outbreak at 1-2 (Mar. 17, 2020), <https://www.vid.uscourts.gov/sites/vid/files/general-ordes/CoronaVirusOperationsOrder.pdf>.

Among other precautionary measures, the Chief Judge continued all criminal trials scheduled from March 18, 2020, through April 16, 2020. The Chief Judge found that the ends of justice required excluding March 18, 2020, through April 16, 2020, from the Speedy Trial count in all criminal matters.

Such exclusion is necessary as to any cases scheduled for trial during the March 18, 2020[,] through April 16, 2020[,] period in order to assure that there is a full, unhindered, continuously serving jury venire and seated

United States v. Mangampat
Case No. 3:19-cr-0068
Order
Page 2 of 4

jury in every case, which is central to the sound administration of justice. Such exclusion of time is also necessary in cases that are set for trial outside of the March 18, 2020[,] through April 16, 2020[,] time period, as well as cases that are not yet set for trial, in order to address the reasonably anticipated difficulties in defense counsel communicating or visiting with clients; the difficulties that the parties are likely to face in undertaking all of the tasks necessary to fully prepare for trial; and the inherent delay in the scheduling of further trials as a consequence of the exclusion period herein.

Id. at 2-3. The Chief Judge has since extended the general order nine times, excluding March 18, 2020, through February 16, 2020, from the Speedy Trial count in all criminal matters.

Since the Chief Judge entered the general order, the crisis in the U.S. Virgin Islands and the United States in general has intensified. On March 17, 2020, there were approximately 7,000 confirmed cases in the United States, two of which were in the U.S. Virgin Islands. As of the date of this Order, there are over 24,500,000 confirmed cases in the United States, 2305 of which are in the U.S. Virgin Islands. The virus has claimed over 406,000 lives in the United States and 24 in the U.S. Virgin Islands. The number of cases and deaths continues to rise rapidly.

Recognizing the gravity of the situation, Congress passed an unprecedented financial assistance package, the CARES Act, on March 27, 2020. The Act was signed into law by the President of the United States that same day. Among its many provisions, the CARES Act authorizes district courts to use teleconferencing to hold felony plea hearings and felony sentencing hearings under appropriate circumstances. See CARES Act, Pub. L. No. 116-136, § 15002(b)(2) (2020).

Moreover, recognizing the severity of the public health crisis presented by COVID-19, Virgin Islands Governor Albert Bryan declared a state of emergency for the Virgin Islands in March 2020. In a series of executive orders in March and April of 2020, Governor Bryan instituted a number of precautionary and preventative measures that significantly curtailed economic and local governmental operations. Over the next several months, the rate of new positive COVID-19 cases in the Virgin Islands decreased significantly. As a result, Governor Bryan loosened the previously ordered restrictions. However, beginning in July, the Virgin Islands began to see a dramatic uptick in new positive COVID-19 cases. On August 13, 2020,

United States v. Mangampat
Case No. 3:19-cr-0068
Order
Page 3 of 4

Governor Bryan issued an executive order effecting a return to all the previously imposed restrictions on economic and local governmental operations along with additional restrictions (the “Stay-at-Home Phase”). Among other measures, Governor Bryan ordered all nonessential businesses to close, all nonessential public workers to stay home, all establishments—except for grocery and ‘big-box’ stores—to limit occupancy to no more than ten people, and all schools and churches to close. In imposing such restrictions, Governor Bryan emphasized that these measures are necessary to curtail the rapidly increasing spread of COVID-19 in the Virgin Islands. Thereafter, on September 8, September 15, and September 30, 2020, Governor Bryan issued additional executive orders which provided for certain new restrictions while relaxing other restrictions, moving the Territory from the “Stay-at-Home Phase” to the Territory’s “Safer-at-Home Phase.”

These restrictions saw some success in reducing the rate of new positive COVID-19 cases in the territory for some amount of time. Indeed, from September 30, 2020, to October 31, 2020, the total positive COVID-19 cases rose from 1323 to 1378—an average of 1.83 new cases per day for the month—and from October 31, 2020 to November 30, 2020, the total positive COVID-19 cases rose from 1378 to 1550—an average of 5.73 new cases per day for the month. See Virgin Islands Department of Health COVID19 Report, <https://www.covid19.usvi.com/covid19-report> (last visited December 15, 2020). However, the rate of new positive COVID-19 cases in the territory increased dramatically at the beginning of December. Indeed, from November 30, 2020, to December 14, 2020, the total positive COVID-19 cases rose from 1550 to 1828—an average of 19.9 new cases per day over that two-week period. Id.

From December 14, 2020, to January 20, 2021, the total positive COVID-19 cases in the Territory have risen from 1828 to 2305—an average of 12.9 new cases per day. As a result of this continuing surge in new cases, on January 15, 2021, the Chief Judge issued the Seventeenth Order Concerning Operations of the District Court of the Virgin Islands during the Covid-19 Outbreak. That order continued all trials from January 16, 2021, through February 16, 2021 pending further order of the Court.

United States v. Mangampat
Case No. 3:19-cr-0068
Order
Page 4 of 4

While the Speedy Trial Act requires that defendants be tried within seventy days of indictment, the Court specifically finds that further extending this period would be in the best interest of justice. COVID-19 continues to present an unpredictable threat to public health and safety. In light of these circumstances, the Court finds it necessary and appropriate to proceed with caution. Social distancing—specifically avoiding gatherings of more than 10 people and maintaining a distance of at least 6 feet from others—remains the most effective check against the COVID-19's transmission. Moreover, this case in particular presents significant challenges surrounding COVID-19 transmission risk and travel restrictions as the majority of the United States' essential witnesses are foreign nationals. Indeed, two witnesses are from the Philippines, one witness is from Colombia, and one witness is from Israel. Given the continuing dire circumstances faced by the U.S. Virgin Islands and the United States as a whole, the Court finds that a greater extension of time is necessary for the protection and well-being of the defendant, the jury, the prosecutors, the witnesses, the Court's personnel, and the general public at large.

The premises considered, it is hereby ORDERED that the time beginning from the date of this order granting an extension through May 10, 2021, shall be excluded in computing the time within which the trial in this matter must be initiated pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161; it is further

ORDERED that the trial in this matter previously scheduled for January 25, 2021, is RESCHEDULED to commence promptly at 9:00 A.M. on May 10, 2021, in St. Thomas Courtroom 1; and it is further ORDERED that the deadlines set by the Court's January 4, 2021 Order are extended as follows: (1) the deadline for the parties to file their pretrial brief is extended to May 3, 2021, and (2) the deadline for the parties to provide the Clerk of Court with a USB Flash Drive containing electronic versions of exhibits is extended to May 5, 2021.

Dated: January 21, 2021

/s/ Robert A. Molloy
ROBERT A. MOLLOY
District Judge